

Common Objectives

- 1. To better understand the ecology and hydrology of the Painkalac Creek, Estuary and Floodplain in relation to the impact of artificial estuary openings

- 2. To work towards developing a best practice management approach which protects both significant human assets and strengthens environmental values

GOAL environmental management and flood risk assessment of the Painkalac Creek is regarded nationally as best practice

